

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 5, 2020

Contact: Marjorie Sturgeon

Email: marjsturgeon@gmail.com

Monsters Roam the Frontier on Keen Garrity's Get Big - Now Streaming Everywhere

Toledo, Ohio — On her debut album Get Big, Knoxville, Tennessee native Keen Garrity sings about creatures, grave robbing, and patent medicine within a landscape of grand rock arrangements dotted with country-western motifs.

The cast of characters in Get Big (which includes everyone from a parasitic twin to a petulant St. Peter) populates a lush world of music whose silly subject matter often belies a deep emotional undercurrent.

The album explores themes of self mythology and expansion. “Basically, these songs are about ways to cope with heartbreak and hurt. When something makes you feel insignificant and small, you make light of it. You turn the hurt outward and embrace grandiosity to an almost delusional degree,” Garrity explains. “How can you be hurt when you’re fifteen feet tall?”

Through such themes, Get Big explores the ways we make sense of our own lives and history. Garrity (Rebekah Burchfield) takes inspiration from her family’s musical history. Her grandfather and great uncle recorded two singles for Capitol Americana as guitar/fiddle duo The Burchfield Brothers. Her father, Tommy Burchfield, played fiddle as a child and young man on various radio and television programs in Knoxville – and, according to family stories, was invited to Archie Campbell’s house and even got to careen around the property in Campbell’s golf cart. The love of music is family-wide: several of her uncles and cousins are musicians in Tennessee and Texas.

Get Big is now streaming on all major music platforms. Visit keengarrity.com for a free digital download of the title track “Get Big.”

###

About Keen Garrity: Keen Garrity (Rebekah Burchfield) is an independent songwriter/producer with deep country music roots making storybook pop-rock. She also co-writes, produces, and performs in the audio comedy series Curdle Holler and is a co-host of The Wizard’s Nightshirt podcast.